

Police Forum 6/28/99
JS

S

C2

Wednesday,
June 16, 1999
Asbury Park Press

AROUND THE REGION

Forum on racial profiling to be held June 28

■ THE MONMOUTH County prosecutor's office and a number of other agencies are planning a public forum on the issue of racial profiling later this month.

Scheduled for 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. June 28 at the Brookdale Community College Performing Arts Center, the forum, which is also to cover police community relations, is open and free to the public. The featured speaker will be the Rev. DeForest B. Soaries Jr., secretary of state of New Jersey. Also sponsoring the event are the Monmouth County Human Relations Commission, the Chiefs of Police Association and the National Conference of Community and Justice.

Those who register in advance will receive a complimentary lunch. For further information, call the prosecutor's office special projects office at (732) 577-6791 or (732) 577-8797.

Community relations topic of forum

The Monmouth County Prosecutor's Office, along with the Monmouth County Human Relations Commission, Chiefs of Police Association and the National Conference of Community, will host a public forum June 28 from 8:30 a.m. - 3 p.m. at the Performing Arts Center of Brookdale Community College, Lincroft. Guest speaker will be N.J. Secretary of State the Rev. DeForest B. Soaries Jr. Registration is required in order to provide a complimentary lunch. Reservations - with individual's name, organization's name, telephone number and number attending - are due by Monday and should be sent to: Jerry Hamlin - Director of Special Projects, Monmouth County Prosecutor's Office, 71 Monument Park, Freehold, NJ 07728; phoned to (732) 577-6791 or (732) 755-8797; or faxed to (732) 780-7502.

Indep 6/16/99