

● MCHRC Book Discussion at February Meeting February 1, 2016, 3:30 P.M.

YOU'RE INVITED: Book Discussion for Black History Month

Between the World and Me, Ta-Nehisi Coates

Brought to you by... Monmouth County Human Relations Commission Program

Professors and MCHRC members, Ronald Sopenoff and Sherri West, will lead an informal discussion of Between the World and Me by Ta-Nehisi Coates. This 2015 National Book Award winner is based on a letter that the author writes to his adolescent son about growing up as an African American.

While it is encouraged that you read the book, it is not required for you to participate. If you would like to learn more about the book, click here.
